

Next, ManUp. . .

A Spiritual Rite Of Passage...

Your legacy is not determined by what you do, but by who you empower next.

There is a huge difference between being a male and becoming a man.

Next, ManUp® is designed to identify and develop specific skills to empower men, fathers, parents, leaders and mentors to influence those they lead to their next level of success! These seven strategies allow men of all ages to maximize their efforts, while humbly serving those they have been given authority to serve!

During the program, each participant will be able to:

- Uncover keys regarding manhood to assist you in reaching your destiny and purpose
- Create greater appreciation for the important relationships in your life
- Discover strategies necessary to create your legacy for yourself and your family
- Make commitments to overcome challenges and obstacles
- Create greater appreciation for accountability and authority
